The GDPR applies only to 'personal data'. This covers any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified from the information. As a result it will apply to information which we hold where you are a sole trader, a partner in a partnership, a personal guarantor or a director of a company. It does not apply to data held about limited companies (including plc's), limited liability partnerships (LLPs) or any other body which is incorporated.

For ease of reference in this notice, the Act and GDPR, along with other data privacy legislation, will be referred to collectively as the "Data Protection Legislation" or simply "the legislation".

SFGB may also record or hold personal data about you even where we have refused to enter into an agreement or contractual relationship with you. This is in order to inform you of our decision and document the rejection in the event that we are, at some later time, required to justify this decision.

8. AUTOMATED DECISIONS

We may use credit scoring or some other automated decision-making tool as part of the assessment of your business's eligibility for a finance product and ability to pay.

Where such systems are used, these will always be as part of a wider and more comprehensive credit assessment process and the ultimate decision will always be made by a human being.

9. CREDIT REFERENCE AGENCIES

When you apply for a product or services from us, we will search your records at one or more credit reference agencies ("CRAs"), which may include both identity and credit checks.

We will use this data to:

- Assess the creditworthiness of your application and your business's ability to afford rentals and/or repayments
- Verify the accuracy of the data you have provided to us
- Help detect and prevent financial crime
- Where you have applied to act as a personal guarantor for a limited company or plc, to assess your financial suitability to act as a guarantor.

When we search the CRAs for information about you or your business, they will note this credit search on your credit file. Other lenders may be able to see this and we may see credit searches from other lenders.

We will also share your personal information with CRAs as part of our reciprocal data sharing arrangements. The data we exchange may include:

- Name, address and date of birth
- Details of your credit application
- Financial situation and financial and repayment history
- Public information, including from sources such as the electoral register and Companies House.

We will continue to share your personal information with CRAs for as long as you remain a customer of SFGB. This will include details of your settled account and any debts not fully repaid on time. It will also include details of any rentals/repayments made to us by you and whether you pay in full and on time. The CRAs may provide this information to other organisations that wish to check your credit status. We will also tell the CRAs when you settle your accounts with us.

Where your application is a joint one, or where you have disclosed that you have a spouse, partner or civil partner, or that you are in business with other partners or directors, we may link your records together. You should therefore share and discuss this information with them before making an application. The CRAs will also link your records together and will remain linked until one of you successfully files for a disassociation with the CRAs to break that link. Ordinarily, you will need to provide proof that you no longer have a financial link with each other.

The identities of the CRAs, their role as fraud prevention agencies, the data they hold, the ways in which they use and share personal information, data retention periods and your data protection rights with the CRAs are explained in more detail in the Credit Reference Agency Information Notice ("CRAIN"). This is accessible from each of the three UK CRAs:

www.equifax.co.uk/crain
www.callcredit.co.uk/crain

10. FRAUD PREVENTION & ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

SFGB will process personal data in order to fulfil its investigation and reporting obligations regarding suspicious transactions under, amongst other legislation, the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on Payer) Regulations 2017 and the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002. SFGB is required to report transactions to the UK National Crime Agency ('NCA') where there is a suspicion that such transactions represent money laundering, terrorist financing or other proceeds of crime.

We will only ever transfer your data outside of the European Economic Area ('EEA') to:

- Follow your instructions
- Comply with a legal duty
- Provide you with services you are using or accessing whilst you are situated outside of the EEA
- Provide information to our agents, advisors and/or fellow Scania Group companies who we use to help us administer your account with us.

Where we do transfer information outside of the EEA, we will take appropriate steps with the aim of ensuring that it is protected in the same way as if it was processed within the EEA. To that end, we will ensure one or more of the following safeguards:

- Transfer it to a country outside the EEA but which has privacy laws that give the same or a comparable level of protection as those within the EEA
- Put in place a contract with the recipient of the data which requires them to protect it to the same standards as those within the EEA
- Transfer it to organisations that are part of the Privacy Shield. The Privacy Shield is a framework which sets privacy standards for data transfers between the United States and the countries of the European Union ('EU'), and ensures shared standards which are similar to those applicable within the EEA.

More information about the adequate protection of data transfers outside the EU/EEA can be found on the European Commission website at https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection\_en

12. IF YOU CHOOSE NOT TO PROVIDE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may need to collect personal information in order to comply with the law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you.

If you choose not to give us this personal information, it may delay or prevent us from meeting our obligations or from arranging and administering your contract(s) with SFGB. This could mean that we refuse or cancel a product or service you have with us.

Any data collection that is optional will be made clear to you at the point of collection or application.

13. MARKETING

We may use the details we hold about you and your business, including personal information such as your name, address and contact details, to provide company updates and newsletters from Scania Financial Services and the Scania Group, to conduct customer satisfaction surveys or to contact you about products and services related to those you currently receive from Scania companies, or have used in the past. You have the right to access the personal information we hold about you. Please contact us by email or postal mail using the contact details contained within Section 21: Contacting Us, marking your request "DSAR".

We may be unable to provide a copy of certain information if it concerns other individuals or if we have some other legal reason to withhold the information.

We may ask you to provide certain information in order to confirm your identity and to help us to search for the information requested. Unless there are exceptional reasons otherwise, we will respond to your request within 30 days of receipt of such supporting information or, where no such information is required, within 30 days of receiving your request.

16. CORRECTING ERRORS IN YOUR PERSONAL DATA

The accuracy of your information is important to us. You have the right to query any information we hold about you that you believe to be erroneous or incomplete. We will take all reasonable steps to check the accuracy of the data and correct this where necessary.

If you wish to do this, please contact us using the contact details in Section 21: Contacting Us.

17. HOW TO OBJECT TO PROCESSING AND/OR REQUEST DELETION

The legislation grants you the 'right to object' and the 'right to erasure', otherwise known as the 'right to be forgotten'. This means that you have the right to object to our use of your personal information, or ask us to delete, remove or stop processing your personal information where there is no need for us to keep it.

There may be legal, regulatory or other reasons why we need to retain or continue to process your data. Where this is the case, we may be able to restrict the use of your personal data. This means that it can only be used for certain purposes, such as to defend legal claims or to exercise our legal rights. Your information would not be used or shared in any other way whilst it is restricted.

You can ask us to restrict the use of your personal information if:

- It is not accurate
- It has been used unlawfully but you do not want us to delete it
- It is no longer relevant, but you want us to keep it for use in legal proceedings
- You have already asked us to stop using your data but you are waiting for us to tell you if we are allowed to continue to use it.

If you believe that we should not be processing your personal data, wish to object to our processing of your data, or wish to ask us to delete or restrict our use of it, please contact us. If we agree that your objection is justified under the legislation, we will cease to process your data for those purposes. Otherwise, we will provide you with our reasons why we need to continue processing your data.

18. HOW TO WITHDRAW YOUR CONSENT

Where we rely on your consent to process your personal data, you may withdraw your consent at any time. We may nevertheless continue to process your personal data if we have other legitimate or lawful reasons to do so.

If you wish to withdraw your consent, please contact us using the details provided in Section 21: Contacting Us. Withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of our use of your personal data before you withdrew your consent.

If you wish to withdraw your consent to any direct marketing to which you have previously opted in, you may also use the 'Update My Marketing Preferences' or 'Unsubscribe' options in our emails.
